Introduction

The UK Parking Enforcement Agency is leading the way in the parking control industry with over 850 clients nationwide and growing.

We offer landowners in the UK an ethical, lawful, non-confrontational and cost effective alternative to wheel clamping by way of issuing of "civil notice to driver stickers" and / or parking charge tickets to unlawfully parked vehicles on privately owned land.

Our system of parking control, "The Parkforce Solution" allows the landowner (or authorised persons acting on behalf of) to police at their discretion their own parking areas without any interference from a third party company.

The Parkforce Solution caters for the smallest parking area (space for one car only) through to parking areas for over 10,000 vehicles.

We are proud members of the British Parking Association, abide by the DVLA's code of conduct for the release and processing of data, and are registered with The Data Protection Agency.

"The system is operated by my staff and administered by Parkforce; from my point of view the system could not be easier and it has proved extremely effective". Mike Clash, Aston University.

"The service you provide is excellent. Your team are extremely helpful, pleasant and courteous. What more can I say!! Thank you and well done". Anita Bernstein, Director, Commodore Court Management Co. Ltd

How The Parkforce Solution Works

We dispatch to you the Parkforce Solution. The Parkforce Solution is a parking protection kit containing contractual warning signs that measure 18" x 16" and display the terms and conditions for parking (i.e. VEHICLES DISPLAYING A VALID PARKFORCE PERMIT), parking permits, civil warning to driver stickers and parking charge tickets.

4 Simple Steps

1. Erect the contractual warning signs in clear and prominent positions.
2. If required, Issue parking permits to staff and clients.
3. Following the above, should a vehicle park contravening the terms and conditions for parking, the landowner or authorised person acting on behalf of may either,
 - Issue a parking charge ticket. Parking charge tickets are £60
 - Issue a civil warning to driver sticker to the offending vehicle. This is a sticker that attaches to the windscreen and outlines in a polite manner that the vehicle has been parked unlawfully and requests the action is not repeated. When removed, the stickers will not leave a residue.
4. Following the issue of a parking charge ticket, simply enter the ticket details on line at www.parkforce.com and your job is done. Alternatively, forward the details to our central processing centre by email, fax or post.

If, after 14 days the charge remains outstanding, we obtain the licensing details from the DVLA and our legal department pursue the motorist for the charge. During this process, we are bound at all times by the DVLA's code of conduct for the release and processing of data, The Administration of Justice Act 1978 and Data Protection laws.

You may cancel any parking charge ticket that you have issued within 14 days, free of charge. This ensures that only genuine offenders and not customers etc are penalised should a parking charge be issued in error.

On completion of the charge, a compensatory payment to the sum of £10 inc VAT is returned to you. Please note, this does not apply to parking charges issued by our patrollers.
